Third Sunday of Advent--- The Face of Hope in Rejoicing… "When we refer to the Messianic age a variety of images come to mind – we are invited to feel primarily joy and the consummation along with hope. The response of those who realize the imminence of the Messianic age is to be the response that we now make. 'What shall we do? How are we to be ready, to be able, to be part of that long awaited event which now unfolds before our very eyes?' Honesty, integrity, joyful witness to the values of God's Kingdom are the virtues suggested. The Scriptures are our source of joy --- how can this be? Hope gives the context, we can be the people we are called to be, it is not hopeless or Herculean, it is Christ-like and challenging. Allowing the peace of God to calm and guard our hearts and mind is vital – it is greater than we can imagine" (CCC#1817-1821).
